HILL says, Full, April 12, 1856.—Mr. HENRY R. COSTAK, No. 350 Broadway—Dear Sir: Having a great many rats around my stable and shop, I thought it would be a good idea to get rid of them, and one man fixed it according to your directions. The next morning he found over one hundred and fifty dead rats. I have bought others' Rat Pois, and found them cumbersome, and took pleasure in pronouncing this no human being could do. I have also tried them on several occasions, and satisfied them that it is the greatest thing of the age. Respectfully yours, &c., J. S. UNDERHILL, No. 435 10th-st.
